Silks.

In the past we have advertised and shown many marvellous values in Silks, but the following quotations represent more style, more beauty and greater money's worth than any heretofore mentioned. They are not the loosely woven, easily sagged fabrics, but firm, strong stuffs, made for elegance and service; sturdier threads, richer dveing or more perfect loom work never before went in Silks that sold at these prices:

Printed Pongee Silks, creamy grounds with charming live-color flower de-signs—graceful buds and blossoms— fit to drape Queen Flora—but they'll be used for evening dresses, tea-gowns and decorations, 32 in. wide, worth 60c.; our price...... 44C

Fancy Bengalines, silk and wool; warp and woot never showed lovelier at double the cost of these. Black and colored grounds, with small, neat diamonds, dots and pin checks shining atop in scores of colors; worth $1.25; our price 580

One hundred pieces Taffeta Silk, full of lustre and life, all colors. 59c One thousand yards Moire Velour, pure silk and wool, best colors for street, worth $1.00, at 690 Two thousand yards Black Taffeta Silk, strong and brilliant, full 36 in. 79c wide, worth $1.00, our price. . . 79c

Two extraordinary values in Black Satin Duchesse, 99c. and. 1.25 Two extraordinary values in rich Black Peau de Soie Silk, 99c. 1.25 Two extraordinary values in Black Gros Grain, heavy and fine. 1.25

Perfect quality Black Satin and Gros Grain Brocades, 99c., $1.24 and 1.48 (IST PL., MAIN BUILD., REAR.)

Women's Pocketbooks.

The manufacturer agreed to deliver them in time for Christmas trade. They arrived too late. Costly delay for somebody. The ill wind that blew an obstacle in the maker's path also blew good fortune to Pocketbook buyers. The saving is substantial.

Women's Combination Card Cases and Pocketbooks, colored morocco and fancy embossed leathers, leather hned, usual price 40c., here at. 19c en's Combination Card Cases and Pocketbooks, real seal, alligator, Women's Combination Card Cases Women's real seal Tuck Books and Combination Pocketbooks, calf and seal lined, worth $1,00 and 79c Shirt Waists.

Shirt Waists for every proper taste. All the 1899 styles in the fabrics that wear and wash best. Nothing neater, nattier or nicer for every day service than these pretty Waists. The present display is merely an advance guard of the unparalleled stock that's coming.

Don't let the little prices scare you. Every garment looks and launders beautifully.

Women's Shirt Waists, made of percale, yoke front, plaited back, 39c Women's Shirt Waists, made of striped percale, bias tucks, "Stanley" 59c Women's Shirt Waists, made of madras, two rows of insertion in front, 990

Unparalleled Dress Goods Values.

The Dress Goods news of to-day is sensational. It concerns staple and novelty styles from leading American and European looms. Don't overlook the vital fact that the fabrics in this unusual offering are new, fashionable and dependable-a wealth of the worthiest weaves. But for all that, the peculiar conditions which gave us possession of them cut regular prices to the core.

Our retail outlet is broad and big-an unclogged channel-and that is one reason why these values are current here to-day.

Covert Cloths, particularly desirable fabrics for walking suits and bicycle costumes; complete range of mixed colors, in spring weights: manufactured to sell at 50c; our price 26C at 98c.; present price is.....

Imported Henriettas and Cashmeres, French and German goods; we've sold them in the past at 69c., while others

Serge-another lot of our guaranteed Serge just received: it is steam shrunk and thoroughly sponged; buy it, wear it, and if it shrinks or spots after a wetting, or pulls in the seams, we'll replace it with new goods; tans, castor shades, grays, browns, blues, reds, greens and black; others charge 49c 70c.; our price is

Striped Suitings; the lines are delicate, faint, "invisible stripes;" eight of the favorite colors for Spring; purest, crispest wool; full 50 inches wide; our usual 98c. number; present price 49c

Imported Invisible Checked Suiting, just received from one of the best English mills, made of choice Saxony

All-Wool Chevlot, black and five shades of blue; we stand behind every yard sold; the manufacturer stands behind us; if it spots or shrinks or fails in proper service, bring it back; advertised elsewhere as a great bargain at 65c.; our price...... 49c

Ladies' Cloth-a stand-by-a perennially popular weave; this is not a paltry show of left-over bolts and undesirable colors; black and scores of shades are on display; twilled backs, 50 inches wide; retailed around town from 54c 70c. to 90c.; our price

Men's Shirts.

The way we sold men's Shirts, Collars and Cuffs last week was a revelation. From the opening day of the sale the crowds grew and grew and grew. The volume of business each day was vaster than that of the preceding day. Our advertising reminded thousands of men and boys of their needs in this respect. Prices fascinated. They yielded to the impulse and came. Found everything just as described. Result: Wardrobe shelves, trunk trays, bureau and chiffonier drawers that were scantily filled a few days ago are now bulging with Shirts. The same chances are still within the reach of all who haven't bought yet.

Unlaundered Shirts, 28c., 38c., 48c 68c Laundered Colored Shirts, 39c., 49c. and 94c Collars, newest shapes, per 990 dozen, 73c. and Night Shirts, fancy trimmed, 24c, 39c, 49c, and 59c (IST, FL., MAIN BUILD., 14TH ST. SIDE.)

2,500 of Them.

Real Renaissance Doylies and Tidies, size 6x6 in., some square and some round, eight effective patterns. They're nice for many uses-table, washstand, bureau, sideboard. Their real value is 19c. and 24c.; we'll sell 2,500 of them at 12c. each. A tidy saving for vigilant housewives. (IST UL., MAIN BUILD, CENTRE.)

Trimmed Millinery.

Winter Toques, Bonnets, Hats and pretty evening effects. The lot is small, as they should be in midwinter. The styles are choice -the dashingest, sparkingest creations of the season. But their chic can't save 'em from the pruning knife, Prices are cut regardlessly. We are righting the stock for Spring business, and all headgear that should be worn now must be sold now. The logic of our Millinery reductions is based on best business ideas. A small company of quick buyers may now secure unequalled values. (2D FL., MAIN BUILD., 14TH ST. SIDE.)

Kid Gloves.

We know these Gloves are French Kid. They were selected by a competent judge. Every pair is thoroughly reliable in style and quality and the prices are exceptionally low. Equal excellence will cost you a third more elsewhere,

Women's two-clasp Kid Gloves, em-broidered backs, in black and self colors; reds, tans, browns, black and white..... 99c

Women's four-hook Pique Kid Gloves, embroidered backs all the latest shades of red, modes and tan; worth 1.25 Fowler Glace Kid Gloves, new flat hooks-four of them-"nervure" em-broidered backs, modes, tans, browns. reds, blues, greens, black and 1.50 Waists, Shirts, Wrappers.

You've seen these items in the papers before. If original quantities hadn't been prodigious they wouldn't be repeated in this column. Their sale last week was splendid and continuous, but we are glad to state enough are here for to-morrow's crowd. We have never offered greater values; we never will-nor will any one else. Read each paragraph carefully.

Jackets, Suits, Skirts.

Excellence, tone and first class tailoring skill in every one of them. Notice the fit, the set, the sweep and the swing-notice the STYLE, too. Always reliability, no matter how low the price you strike. Of course, these values are results of unusual trade turns that come only at the meridian of the season. Six weeks ago the makers would have demanded double present rates. The woman who ignores these is either fully supplied or doesn't appreciate real economy.

Women's English Kersev Cloth Jackets, double breasted box front, notched collar, stitched and strapped seams, lined throughout with satin or fancy taffeta, worth $18.00, at. 9.98 Women's seal-plush Jackets, double breasted fly front, high rolling storm collar, entire garment edged with sable Fur Pieces.

If these types get to the notice of one hundred women who are on the watch for Fursat under prices the entire lot will be sold quick as a flash. The chances are that one hundred thousand women will read and be interested in what follows. Moral: Come early.

Women's fine Electric Seal Scarfs, cluster style, with eight squirrel tails and two heads; were $4.98; 3.74 now

Women's Alaska Sable (skunk) Scarts, finished with eight full sable 8.98 tails; were $11.98; now 8.98 (2D FL., MAIN BUILD, REAR.)

1899 Spring Cottons.

All these winsome Cottons are fresh, bright and new. The styles and prices are exclusively our own. Each day, as the season advances, something sparkling and pretty will be added to the stock, and long before the hyacinths bloom, the collection will be complete and peerless. We emphasize the following features:

Excellence of weaves. Effectiveness of designs. Beauty of colorings. Economy of prices.

Novelties in limited quantities for those who value exclusiveness, and the low cost kinds in wonderful variety for the popular demand.

American Ginghams—well known A. F. C. brand—plaids, checks, broken plaids, pin checks, stripes and block plaids. Latest styles and color blendings for this season. We never had handsomer or better; the price is remarkable.

Patiste-inexhaustible assortment of colorings and patterns, including floral, scroll, striped and cross-bar effects. Qualities that would readily sell for more than 12c.

Printed Madras, excellent for shirtwaists and children's dresses. Madras has the dual charm of delicacy and strength; filmy looking, but firm; this Irish Dimities-ideally Irish-just landed; they were selected by our resident Belfast agent; clear, strong, solid col-ors—black, navy, light blue, pink, lavender, cardinal, lemon and white...... 16c Silk-striped Woven Madras-It was an artistic fancy that led the loom worker to enrich plain Madras with the sheen of a silk stripe. Here they are, ready for stunning frocks, many col-orings and designs, 32 in. wide. 19c French Percale - really, genuinely French weaves that you will admiresmooth, sturdy—suggesting durability. This lot is smallish—five solid colors and litteen different patterns, 24c Figured Piques-'Cote de Cheval' is Imported Sateens; you'd know their origin by their surface—silky, lustrous; blue grounds — navy and cadet — stripes, dots, eccentric, zigzag effects and conventional designs 26c
